

Hybrid Conference
(Budapest/ online - digital platform 'Zoom')

Thursday November 24
Time
Onsite / In person (CEU, Budapest, Nádor str. 15.)
8:30-9:00	Registration & welcome coffee
9:00-9:15	Conference Opening Magdolna Sass (Institute of World Economics)
9:15-10:45 Parallel Sessions (SLOT1)	Contemporary challenges 1	Chinese and Russian infrastructure push	VOC 1
	Chair: Miklós Szanyi	Chair: Ágnes Szunomár	Chair: Vusal Ahmadov
	Ilja Viktorov, Alexander Abramov Russian financial markets after February 2022: de-globalization, infrastructure issues and currency markets	Tamás Peragovics, Ágnes Szunomár The Great Connection – The Budapest-Belgrade Railway Project in the Context of Hungary's Foreign Policy Identity	Krisztián Németh Evaluating the coherence of economic policies in East Central Europe: an analytical framework
	Muhayyoi Rahimzoda The implications of the Russian-Ukrainian conflict for global economy	Carlos Raul Lima da Frota Araujo The profile of Chinese investments globally and its role in the structural transformations in the world economy	Tamás Tibor Csontos Changing state expenditures in East-Central European varieties of capitalism after the 2008 crisis
	Miklós Szanyi Explaining current system failures (Covid 19, war in Ukraine) through cycle theories	András Deak, John Szabo, Csaba Weiner The EU vs. the US and Russia - New dynamics of Great Power energy politics in the SEE?	Vusal Ahmadov Structural Change and Economic Growth in South Caucasia
		Ágnes Szunomár To connect or not to connect? Responding to the digital silk road in Central and Eastern Europe
10:45-11:00	Coffee Break
11:00-13:00 Parallel Sessions (SLOT2)	Sustainable development	VoC 2: Dependent Market Economies	Contemporary challenges 2
	Chair: Csaba Lakócai	Chair: István Benczes	Chair: Judit Ricz
	Dániel Muth Can Revenue Recycling Sweeten the Pot of Stringent Carbon Pricing?	Anita Pelle Dependent market economies? Asymmetric interdependence? Neither? Both? The case of post-socialist EU member states	Miklós Somai Rationale behind and achievability of the goals of the ever-changing CAP
	Gergely Buda Industrial symbiosis and industrial policy for sustainable development in Uganda	Gergő Medve-Bálint Economic Nationalism in Dependent Capitalisms During the COVID-19 Pandemic: Czechia and Hungary Compared	Fruzsina Sígér The secret life of microstates: how big is the role of state in the microstates?
	John Szabó Quo Vadis Fossil Capitalism?	András Tétényi, Tamás Barczikay Exogenous shocks and voter behaviour in Central and Eastern Europe	Judit Ricz Ginga Capitalism in Brazil: merging the perspectives of new developmentalism and comparative capitalism research
	Csaba Lakócai How sustainable is happiness? An enquiry about the sustainability and wellbeing performance of societies	Magdolna Sass, Jana Vicková Heterogeneity of emerging multinationals and the role of the state in their emergence – the case of Czechia and Hungary
13:00-14:00	Lunch Break

Time	Thursday November 24 Onsite / In person (CEU, Budapest, Nádor str. 15.)
-------------	---

Keynote Speech: Professor Peter NEWELL (University of Sussex, UK) Speech Title: Power Shift: From decarbonisation to economic transformation? Chair: John Szabó (Institute of World Economics)
14:00-15:15
15:15-15:30	Coffee Break
15:30-17:00 Parallel Sessions (SLOT3)	Energy issues & Automotive industry	Industrial policies and beyond	Structural transformation
	Chair: Beáta Farkas	Chair: Andrea Éltető	Chair: Agnes Kügler
	Tamás Szigetvári, Gábor Túry State strategies in promoting automotive manufacturing investments - the case of Hungay and Turkey	Veronika Czina Keeping the money while (dis)respecting the rule of law within the EU? The case of Hungary	Lóránt Kiss The State as a Platform of Platforms: Central Bank Digital Currencies and the new role of the state in the platform economy
	Andrea Szalavetz, Magdolna Sass Disentangling the semi-periphery: Evolutionary trajectories and perspectives of the Austrian and Hungarian automotive industries	Song Wenxuan The impact of industrial policies on Enterprise Technology Innovation in China (2001 – 2020)	Ádám Kerényi The Rise of Central Bank Digital Currencies
	Beáta Farkas Development of the European battery industry and the Hungarian strategy	Andrea Éltető - Judit Ricz Can industrial policy be “green” in hybrid regimes? The case of Hungary	Agnes Kügler, Andreas Reinstaller, Klaus Friesenbichler Can value chain integration explain the diverging economic performance within the EU?
17:00 - 18:00	Reception

Time	Friday November 25 Online (Zoom)
-------------	--

8:30-10:00 Parallel Sessions (SLOT5)	Inequalities & unemployment	VoC 3: fiscal and financial issues	Development in the (semi-) periphery
	Chair: Péter Mihályi	Chair: Károly Attila Soós	Chair: John Szabó
	João Serrasqueiro, Elena Sochirca, Pedro Cunha Neves Determinants of youth unemployment: evidence from 18 OECD countries	Alias Bengtsson Varieties of System of Finance: An exploratory analysis of European countries	Grzegorz Waszkiewicz Guns-Butter Elasticity and its reasons. An examination of European Union Countries.
	Vijaya Lakshmi Kedari, Pavel Cizek Heterogeneous Effects of Macroeconomic Factors on Income Inequality Dynamics	Zeynep Ağdemir Varieties of Capitalism, Varieties of Budget during the 2008 Crisis, the Covid-19 Pandemic, and the Russia-Ukraine War: A Comparative Analysis between Europe and Turkey	P Jijin Contemporary Structural Transformation: Remittances as a Driving Force
	Emese Kovács, Péter Mihályi Inequalities of Covid-mortality among 30 European countries	Károly Attila Soós The US and the Euro Area: Two Models of a Fiscal Union?	Bálint Kronstein, Gergely Tagai The course of inequalities in the uneven capitalist development in Central and Eastern Europe
10:00-10:30	Coffee Break
10:30-11:30	Keynote Speech: Björn JINDRA (Copenhagen Business School) Speech Title: Fragmentation in the Digital Economy Chair: Magdolna Sass (IWE CERS)
11:30-12:30	Lunch Break

Time

Friday November 25

Online (Zoom)

Round table discussion and book launch: The Political Economy of Emerging Markets and Alternative Development Paths

12:30-13:30
(SLOT6)

Chair: Judit Ricz

Contributors: Tamás Gerőcs, István Benczes, Magdolna Sass, Anita Pelle, Miklós Szanyi, Mina Toksoz

13:30-14:00

Coffee Break

14:00-15:30
Parallel
Sessions
(SLOT7)

Environmental & structural issues

Contemporary changes 3

Firms and GVCs in focus

Chair: Sona Mandal

Chair: Annamária Artner

Chair: Judit Ricz

Galina Rana

Collins Nkapnwo

Tamás Gáspár, Krisztián Koppány,
Magdolna Sass, Bi Shulei*Evolution of climate change adaptation policies in India: a study of sector-specific budgetary allocations in IndiaAfrica in the Middle Ground of Geostrategic and Geopolitical Interests of America, and China and France: Prospects for Strategic Autonomy.Hungary-China economic relations: the role of global value chains*

Erjole Barbullushi, Albana Kastrati

Garry Piepenbrock

Adam Pilat

*Toward Green Economy: Investigating
Environmental Accounting Indicators that lead to performance in AlbaniaToward a Theory of the Evolution of the Global Political Economy: Expanding 'Variety of Capitalism's' Theoretical FrameworkDefinition of the corporate welfare concept and its justification in the light of the market failure theory*

Sona Mandal

Annamária Artner

Sarolta Somosi

Covid Crisis: Effective State Action and Scope of Structural Transformation of the Informal SectorStructural transformations of the world order and the prospect for socialismThe development of energy policy from the transition to mature EU membership – a Central European perspective

15:45-16:00

Closing Remarks

Miklós Szanyi (Institute of World Economics)